

ADVERTISE YOUR PRODUCT OR SERVICE TO PRIMARY CARE PHYSICIANS

American Family Physician®

American Family Physician is your best opportunity to advertise medical products and services to a qualified physician readership.

AFP, the official clinical publication of the American Academy of Family Physicians, has a qualified circulation of 173,000 family physicians. Your ad has the opportunity to be read again and again by AFP readers:

- On average, family physicians spend 2 hours reading each issue of AFP.
- Recipients read and re-read AFP to take advantage of the valuable CME offered in every issue.

The AFP/FPM CareerCenter is the official job board of the American Family Physician. Advertise to employers, job seekers or both with an eye catching banner in a prominent location throughout the site.

Contact us today and to see how we can put your product or service advertisement in print and online for this targeted, qualified audience of medical professionals.

With American Family Physician you can advertise your products and services in print and online.
